

P.E – OAA (Outdoor adventurous activities) LO: To communicate with my partner and play honestly within the rules

Set out an obstacle course. Can you find objects in your house/garden for obstacles that you could travel over, under, around or through?

Can you try this with someone in your household? You must travel around an obstacle course together. You must not let go of each others' hands or you must start again.

Repeat the course. This time partner B is blindfolded. The aim is for partner A to safely guide blindfolded partner B around the obstacle course. You are allowed to hold their hand and speak to them. Once the course is completed, you can change roles.

Music LO: To sing in tune and from memory with accurate pitch

This song is about how Egyptians turned their Pharaohs into mummies.

The ancient Egyptians worshipped many different gods. Attached below, you can read about the different Egyptian gods. Can you figure out which picture of each god matches each description?

Once you are finished, check the answers labelled with the matching number.

Music Lyrics

V1

The Egyptians were a clever lot
But they were kind of funny!
When a Pharaoh died they did a trick
'Cos he had loads of money.
They pulled his brain out through his nose,
Put sawdust in his tummy,
They wrapped him up in bandages
And then they called him Mummy!

Chorus

Phunky, phunky, phunky, phunky Pharaohs!
Hieroglyphics tell us what they did.
Phunky, phunky, phunky, phunky Pharaohs!
Boogie down inside a pyramid.

V2

The Egyptians were a crazy lot
But not some kind of dummies!
When a Pharaoh died they left his teeth
So he wouldn't look so gummy.
They put his organs in a jar
Beside some jewels and honey,
He went in a sarcophagus
And then they called him Mummy!

Chorus

V3

Tutankhamun, Rameses,
They were part of dynasties.
Akhenaten, Takelot,
Rode a golden chariot,
Nefertiti, Osorkon,
Once were great and now they're gone.
Cleopatra, Ptolemy,
They were Egyptian celebrities!

Chorus twice and last line repeated twice

Boogie down inside a pyramid,
Boogie down inside a pyramid!

Ancient Egyptian Gods and Goddesses

The Ancient Egyptians worshipped so many gods and goddesses that it would certainly be hard to count all of them! You'll be counting for ages, trying to figure out who they all are. Ancient Egyptians worshipped a huge number of ancient Egyptian gods and Egyptian goddesses.

Some of them looked very much like humans; however others were part human and part animal, where some of them looked like crocodiles, jackals, cats, rams and even falcons.

The bodies of these ancient gods were always human but their heads looked like birds and animals.

Many religions only worship one god, whereas the Ancient Egyptians worshipped many.

GODS AND GODDESSES

ANCIENT EGYPTIAN RELIGION

There were more than 2000 gods in ancient Egypt. Most took human form but some had the heads of animals. Here is a selection of the more important gods that Egyptians would have worshipped.

1. Ra: Ra was god of the Sun and the lord of the gods. He is shown to have the body of a human and the head of a falcon. Above his head sits a sun disc with a sacred cobra twisted round it. It is said that Ra sailed the heavens in a boat called 'Barque of Millions of Years'. At the end of every day many thought Ra had died as he sailed through the night in the Underworld leaving the Moon to light the night sky until he was born again at dawn.

2. Amun: Amun was an important god because it is said that he created all things. However, there are not many stories or pictures of him as he was invisible. Many of the pictures of him come from when he mixes with another god like Ra, when he becomes Amun-Ra. Amun is usually in human form but sometimes has a ram's head.

3. Horus: Horus has the head a hawk which makes him look similar to Ra but Horus has a crown made to look like the two parts of Egypt, the red and the white to show that he ruled all of the land. Horus was the god of the sky and it was believed that the pharaohs were a living version of Horus making them godlike.

4. Thoth: Thoth was the god of wisdom, writing, time and the moon. The ancient Egyptians believed that Thoth created hieroglyphics and kept a record of all knowledge. He has the head of an ibis bird, a long beaked bird common in Egypt.

5. Ma'at: Ma'at was the goddess of truth, justice and harmony and the wife of Thoth. A pharaoh had to promise to follow Ma'at and be a fair and honest leader.

6. Isis: Isis is the mother of Horus and the queen of the goddesses. Sometimes she is shown to have a throne on her head and other times she has a sun disk similar to Hathor.

7. Osiris: Osiris is the god of the dead and husband of Isis. He is shown wearing the white linen wrapping from a mummy. He wears a white crown with large feathers. Although he was the god of the Underworld, Egyptians still liked him for helping people pass on to the next life.

8. Hathor: Hathor was the goddess of love, music and dance. She looked after all women in life and death. Hathor sometimes took the form of a cow with a sun disk above her head.

9. Anubis: Anubis was the god of embalming, the mummification ritual. It is believed he made the first mummy, Osiris. Anubis was the guide of the dead, he helped them pass to the next life. It was said that Anubis would wait for you in the hall of the dead to weigh your heart. If your heart was lighter than Ma'at's feather, you would live forever. If it was heavier, your heart would be eaten by the demon Ammit. Anubis had the head of a jackal.

10. Sekhmet: Sekhmet was goddess of war, fire and medicine. She has a head of a lion, the best hunter known to the Egyptians and her breath is said to have created the desert.
