Case A

Name: William Taylor

Age: 14

Crime: Pickpocketing

Details: Caught stealing coins from a gentleman's pocket on Thackeray Street. The gentleman chased William down the street and caught him, only to find a number of other stolen items including pocket watches and handkerchiefs.

Case B

Name: Mary Phillips

Age: 19

Crime: Theft of a coat

Details: The stolen coat was found with Mary's possessions in the servant's quarters. The valuable coat belonged to Mary's mistress Mrs H. Robson. It was noted missing on Saturday morning and discovered with Mary's belongings on Sunday afternoon. Mary was discharged immediately.

Case C

Name: Walter Evans

Age: 34

Crime: Murder

Details: Walter was caught shortly after the death of his father-in-law, James Cooper, who had been poisoned. Walter was found nearby with a small bottle in his pocket containing a poisonous liquid called 'strychnine', the very same that had caused the death of James Cooper.

Case D

Name: Thomas King

Age: 25

Crime: Criminal Damage

Details: Thomas caused damage to a railway line and three railway carriages in the middle of the night. Thomas was caught attempting to start a fire near the railway station. He does not agree with the way the government has supported the railways and wanted to protest. The damage he caused could have caused a serious accident if he had not been caught in the act.
